In Memoriam.

Carrie Weller was born March 18, 1877 and died August 19, 1901. Twentyfour years, that is the record. And vet, who that has known her but would say hers was a golden life such as is pictured in that chapter of the Bible she loved so well, beginning "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth," and which speaks of death as the "breaking of the golden chalice."

She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in New Petersburg when but twelve years old. It was the church of her choice. Firmness was one of the characteristics of her life. So gentle in her ways and manner and ufacturer's entire line of Sample Tabyet when a test came she was firm in lets, which we will sell while they last her belief.

She had a class of boys in the Sunday School in which she took great interest, even after she went away for her health she would write back and pers for the fall trade is large, new ask about them.

ing friends. Few of her associates rooms. Our papers at 5c, 8c and 10c. had a wider circle of friends than she are the finest we have ever shown and all who came in touch with her Samples mailed or given on applicalife were made better.

Less than a year ago, on the 19th of health. Every week she wrote home, sometimes two and three latterns. sometimes two and three letters. It N. Migh St. was touching to see what a brave fight she made for life and how cheerful she tried to be for the sake of the dear ones at home, never thinking of First-Class Meat 830 15 herself. Even when she must have been discouraged and out of heart she wrote the cheeriest letters home. In 1568 12 one of her letters home she said "I'm ding my Bible every day and pray-924 08 ing that I may live up to the very 8299 68 best that is in me." She remained at La Junta till the 515 68 25th of April then went south to Las Vegas, New Mexico. Her aunt was with her during her entire stay and rendered every assistance possible to

346 14 make her comfortable. Toward the last of June she grew 909 87 worse and they telegraphed home for 145 12 help to get back. Her mother went 1041 62 immediately and on the sixth of July 1080 49 they left Los Vegas and reached

Greenfield on the 8th. I do not think any one was happier 1842 65 to get home. She hardly knew wheth-1 10 er she would live to get there or not, 828 50 and worn out with the long hard jour-1225 90 ney, yet she was so glad to get home 242 17 it acted like a tonie and she seemed 637 60 better for several days. She would laugh and talk with her friends as she Highest Price Paid for First-Class did when she was well.

She loved the beautiful and it was 198 94 characteristic of her to look on the 790 66 bright side. In her sick room while 1 05 the tears would start and flow for a $12 18 time they would soon cease. The 1597 19 brightness of her sweet sunny spirit would break through the gloom, her smile would drive the tears away.

I remember the last time I saw her. She said "You are all here now I want you to have prayers with me." Then turning to her mother she said "mother, get my Bible." And all the time during prayers she kept saying parts of the 23rd Psalm.

Though so weak she could scarcely talk to her friends, and the sadness of seeing her so changed in body, it was a pleasure to them to meet her. Her genial nature and sunny disposition that were so attractive and winning had lost none of their power. She was the same up to the very last mo ment. She spoke in the morning about causing them so much trouble to wait on her. A few minutes before the noon hour her mother noticed there was a change and called the rest of the family. As they came into the room she looked up and recognized each one of them. Then placing her hands beside her face as if to rest, she peacefully breathed her last.
